

Giordano Donates Clothing for the Nepal Earthquake Relief

May 7, 2015, Hong Kong

Giordano International Limited (the “Group” or “Giordano”) today confirmed the donation of HK$ 140,000 worth of clothing to CARE-Nepal in support of the April 25th Nepal earthquake relief to help victims in the affected regions.

“For the earthquake victims in rural and remote areas, basic needs such as food, water, shelter and clothing are always of the gravest concern – effective distribution of relief materials is a core issue. Therefore, Giordano decided to donate over 500 pieces of clothing to help relieve the urgent needs of the survivors through CARE-Nepal, a leading humanitarian organization focusing on the plight of the poor and vulnerable in Nepal.” remarked Dr. Peter Lau, Chairman and Chief Executive of Giordano. “If we all join together, even a small donation can make a big difference for the disaster relief. Giordano sincerely believes that we truly live in a ‘World Without Strangers’ and we will continue to contribute and support those in need.” continued Dr. Lau.
