

Giordano South China Establishes Internship Programme with the Guangzhou Vocational College of Foreign Languages

February 26, 2021, Guangzhou, China

Giordano's South China Command Centre ("Giordano South China") recently established a partnership programme with the Guangzhou Vocational College of Foreign Languages (the "Vocational College").

The programme involves the creation of a collaborative internship scheme, where the most promising students of the Vocational College are offered half-year internship placements at Giordano's stores in Guangzhou or with Giordano's dynamic e-shop team at Giordano South China's headquarters.

Representatives from Giordano South China's Human Resources Department held a series of information sessions at the Vocational College, which was established in 1982, to introduce the Giordano brand as well as the Group's history, core values and vision. Interviews were then arranged with 100 candidates, of which 22 were ultimately offered internships – 16 young individuals were placed into Giordano South China's stores, while 6 received internships with Giordano's e-shop team.
