

Giordano Malaysia Completes Store Relocation in Sunway Carnival Mall

June 14, 2022, Malaysia

Shop Relocation in Penang Ties in with Malaysia's Ongoing Transition to Endemic Phase

Giordano Malaysia celebrates the relocation and reopening of its Sunway Carnival Mall store, as various cities in Malaysia welcome back returning travelling shoppers.

The new 1,192ft² store is 50% larger than the old store, and has moved to a more prominent location where connecting the existing complex and the new phase of the mall.

In terms of store decor and ambience, the new store's interiors are marked by a focus on clean, simple lines and feature layered cut wooden wall panelling. This, coupled with the minimalist approach to the interior design and the lighting fixtures combine to give the shop an overall premium, warm aesthetic.

"Our Sunway Carnival store reopened on June 3rd and already we are seeing the benefits of the revamped store design and improved location. The mall's expansion and upgrading are proving popular with both the local residents and returning tourists", said Ms Jennifer Mah, General Manager of Giordano Malaysia.

Sunway Carnival boasts over 220 shops, and the region's largest cinema with an 8-screen cineplex and a convention centre. The mall in Penang is among the largest in the northern of Peninsular Malaysia and, after completing its expansion, the gross floor area will be doubled to 1.5 million ft², while the net lettable area will be increased to 1 million ft².
