

Giordano Malaysia Donates Children's Clothing to Orphanages

January 10, 2024, Malaysia

Giordano Malaysia's team rings in the festive season with gifts to less fortunate children

The year-end holidays should be when family and friends gather to share in joy and the festivities. This festive season, Giordano Malaysia did not forget about those less fortunate, embarking on a series of visits to present gifts to the underprivileged, especially children, in the hope of bringing them some joy and comfort.

Over the course of two days in late December, the volunteers from Giordano Malaysia's CSR team delivered gifts to 3 different orphanages, including the House of Joy in Puchong, Persatuan Kebajikan Wen Hua, and Rainbow Home. The children staying at these orphanages were provided with new, donated clothing gathered by the Giordano team.

Ms Jennifer Mah, General Manager of Giordano Malaysia, commented, "In the spirit of the season of giving, Giordano Malaysia has brought the joy of festivities to underprivileged children who might not get to have the same experience." She added, "It was very rewarding to see the smiles on the children's faces when our team members visited to talk and play with them, and even more so when they received their new clothing. Many of them had not received new clothes for a number of years. In future, we hope to continue providing joy to more children in need".
